

If The Son Has Set You Free

Words and Music by Arthur Morgan

E                      A                      D                      A      E

If the Son has set you free then you are truly free

E                      A                      D                      A      E

If the Son has set you free then you are truly free

D                      A                      E

Lift your voice and praise his name

D                      A                      E

for he took on flesh, he bore our shame

D                      A                      E

And he rose up, he conquered the grave

D                      A                      E

And he has power to save

D                      A                      E

And he has power to save
