

End of Fight

Written by Sulad Jhun Cardeinte
2013 (A song to reach out the Buddhists mind)

Your life is full of fight.
You win or lose sometimes
You pray more in bad times
You celebrate good times

You wish you're always up
You hate rememb'ring the lose you have
You wish all good come all times
Plus like a fairy tale ending kind

CHORUS

Like a bird which flies up high
You've wished to stay up in the sky.
You've hoped the light of day won't go away.
But as you see the evening comes
You've realized you can't stop the time.
So you decide to make other plans
And you declared, "this could be the end of fight."
(repeat chorus once)

When it's right time to come home,
But there's no place you can call home.
Know JESUS really cares, He's always there.
Don't forget Him and just hold on.
In bad times and when you feel alone.
He loves and feels just how much you've felt.
He's asking you, "Will you be coming home?"

ENDING

Don't forget Him and just hold on.
In bad times and when you feel alone.
He loves and feels just how much you've felt.
He's asking you, "Will you be coming home?"
