

I Know

Written by Sulad Jhun Cardeinte

There've been times that I feel unsure
What life's tomorrow would turn to be
But when I give way to Jesus,
He takes my dreads away

CHORUS

I know He loves me
Though many times that I turn away
I know He'll lead me
He surely wants all the best for me
I know I can hope on him

He left His throne and yield to obey
He took the form of humanity
He suffered and died on calv'ry
He became sin for me.

I know He loves me
(I know....)
Though many times that I turn away
(I turn away....)
I know He'll lead me
He surely wants all the best for me
(He knows what's best for me....)
I know I can hope on him.
