

WHY

Written by Sulad Jhun Cardeinte

So many questions, so many hows
There's so much things to understand
You've asked solutions from a friend.
But ended up into confusion
He said "don't ask me why," why.
He said "don't ask me why," why.
He said "don't ask me why.

So many options, so many ways.
You choose Jesus, you give Him chance.
But when you listen to His voice
His answers not your expectation
He hopes you won't ask why, why.
He hopes you won't ask why, why.
He hopes you won't ask why.

So many problems, so many whys
You long for peace, comfort and change.
You remember Jesus who said "come,"
"Have faith! I'm your hope and salvation."
You said, "you won't ask why, why
You said, you won't ask why, why
You said, you won't ask why
